

Operations Performance Report

- Overall workforce productivity has remained stable across the last three quarters.
- FTE productivity baseline is indexed at 100% based on historical output benchmarks.
- Contractual workforce productivity averages at approximately 85% relative to FTE baseline.
- Client satisfaction scores (NPS) improved from 44 to 48 over the past 12 months.
- Regional performance varies, with higher efficiency observed in southern delivery centers.